- IV. ANALYSIS:    1. Colleton Place, 210 Academy Road, Walterboro, SC 29488. The Department notified the facility in January 2005 that it was revoking the facility's license for failing to comply with building and fire and life safety codes. The facility appealed, and prior to an administrative hearing, the facility was able to correct the deficiencies. Therefore, under the terms of an Administrative Order, dated October 6, 2005, the Department agreed to cease action to revoke the license for Colleton Place.

Previous Sanctions: In May 2004, the Department suspended the facility's license, for failure to comply with its twenty-four month plan to bring the facility into compliance with building and fire and life safety codes following a change in ownership. When the facility remained in non-compliance, the facility's license was revoked.

2. Geo-Systems Design & Testing, Inc., 1836 Augusta Highway, West Columbia, SC 29169. Under the terms of a Consent Order executed October 18, 2005, the facility paid a penalty of $500. The facility was found to have a violation of R.61-63, Radioactive Materials, by failing to perform leak tests at intervals not to exceed six months.

Previous Sanctions: In 1999, the facility paid a penalty of $2,000 for allowing unauthorized individuals to use radioactive materials and failing to provide personnel monitoring to individuals using radioactive materials.

3. Bellaire Place, 23 Southpointe Drive, Greenville, SC 29607. Under the terms of a Consent Order executed September 19, 2005, the facility paid a penalty of $4,100. The facility was found to have violations of R61-84, Standards for Licensing Community Residential Care Facilities. Violations included: medications were not available; medication administration records were incomplete and not signed; the medication room door, medication cart, and refrigerator with medications were not secured; and others.

Previous Sanctions: None

4. Long's Residential Care Center, 1280 Denny Highway, Saluda, SC 29138. Under the terms of a Consent Order executed June 21, 2005, the facility paid a penalty of $2,500. The facility was found to have violations of R61-84, Standards for Licensing Community Residential Care Facilities. Violations included: utilization of a staff bedroom for housing residents; denying the Department access to a cabinet; providing care and services to non-residents; and not meeting the required staffing ratio for the number of residents in the facility.

Previous Sanctions: None

5. Brian's Residential Care II, 1307 Sifly Road, Orangeburg, SC 29118. Under the terms of a Consent Order executed October 20, 2005, the facility paid a penalty of $6,250. The facility was found to have violations of R61-84, Standards for Licensing Community Residential Care Facilities. Violations included: repeated failure to maintain proper staff to resident ratios during peak hours; multiple exits signs not illuminated, and others.

Previous Sanctions: None

6. Bradford Gardens, 1108 N. Main Street, Marion, SC 29571. Under the terms of a Consent Order executed October 4, 2005, the facility paid a penalty of $20,440. The facility was found to have violations of R61-84, Standards for Licensing Community Residential Care Facilities. Violations included: ordered medications not available; changing the administration of medication without a change order; storage of medications in unsecured and unattended areas; storage of toxic agents in unsecured and unattended areas; multiple maintenance violations; multiple housekeeping violations; and others.

Previous Sanctions: None

7. Aggression Studios, 3403 South Murray Avenue, Anderson, SC 29624. The facility's license was suspended for three months, meaning that it could not conduct any body piercing procedures during this period. The facility was found to have violated R61-109, Standards for Permitting Body Piercing Facilities. The violation involved an individual misrepresenting himself as another employee of the facility while attending a required Bloodborne Pathogens in-service training course.

Previous Sanctions: None
